Igniting the Human Advantage in the Age of AI

"Justin electrifies his audience … he was the best speaker."

Sir Eric Peacock, Chair, Academy for Chief Executives, UK

Dr. Justin Cohen

Global Speaker | Bestselling Author

Hall of Fame Speaker, Bestselling Author, Global Authority on Human Transformation

With a career spanning more than two decades and keynotes delivered in over 40 countries across six continents, Dr. Justin Cohen stands at the intersection of psychology and AI, empowering organizations to amplify — not replace — their humanity.

Renowned for his high-energy, humorous delivery, he doesn't just talk to audiences — he deeply connects, unlocking the wisdom in the room.

A former CNBC Africa prime-time host, Dr. J blends masterful storytelling with behavioural science and live conversations with AI, creating experiences that leave teams inspired and ready to act.

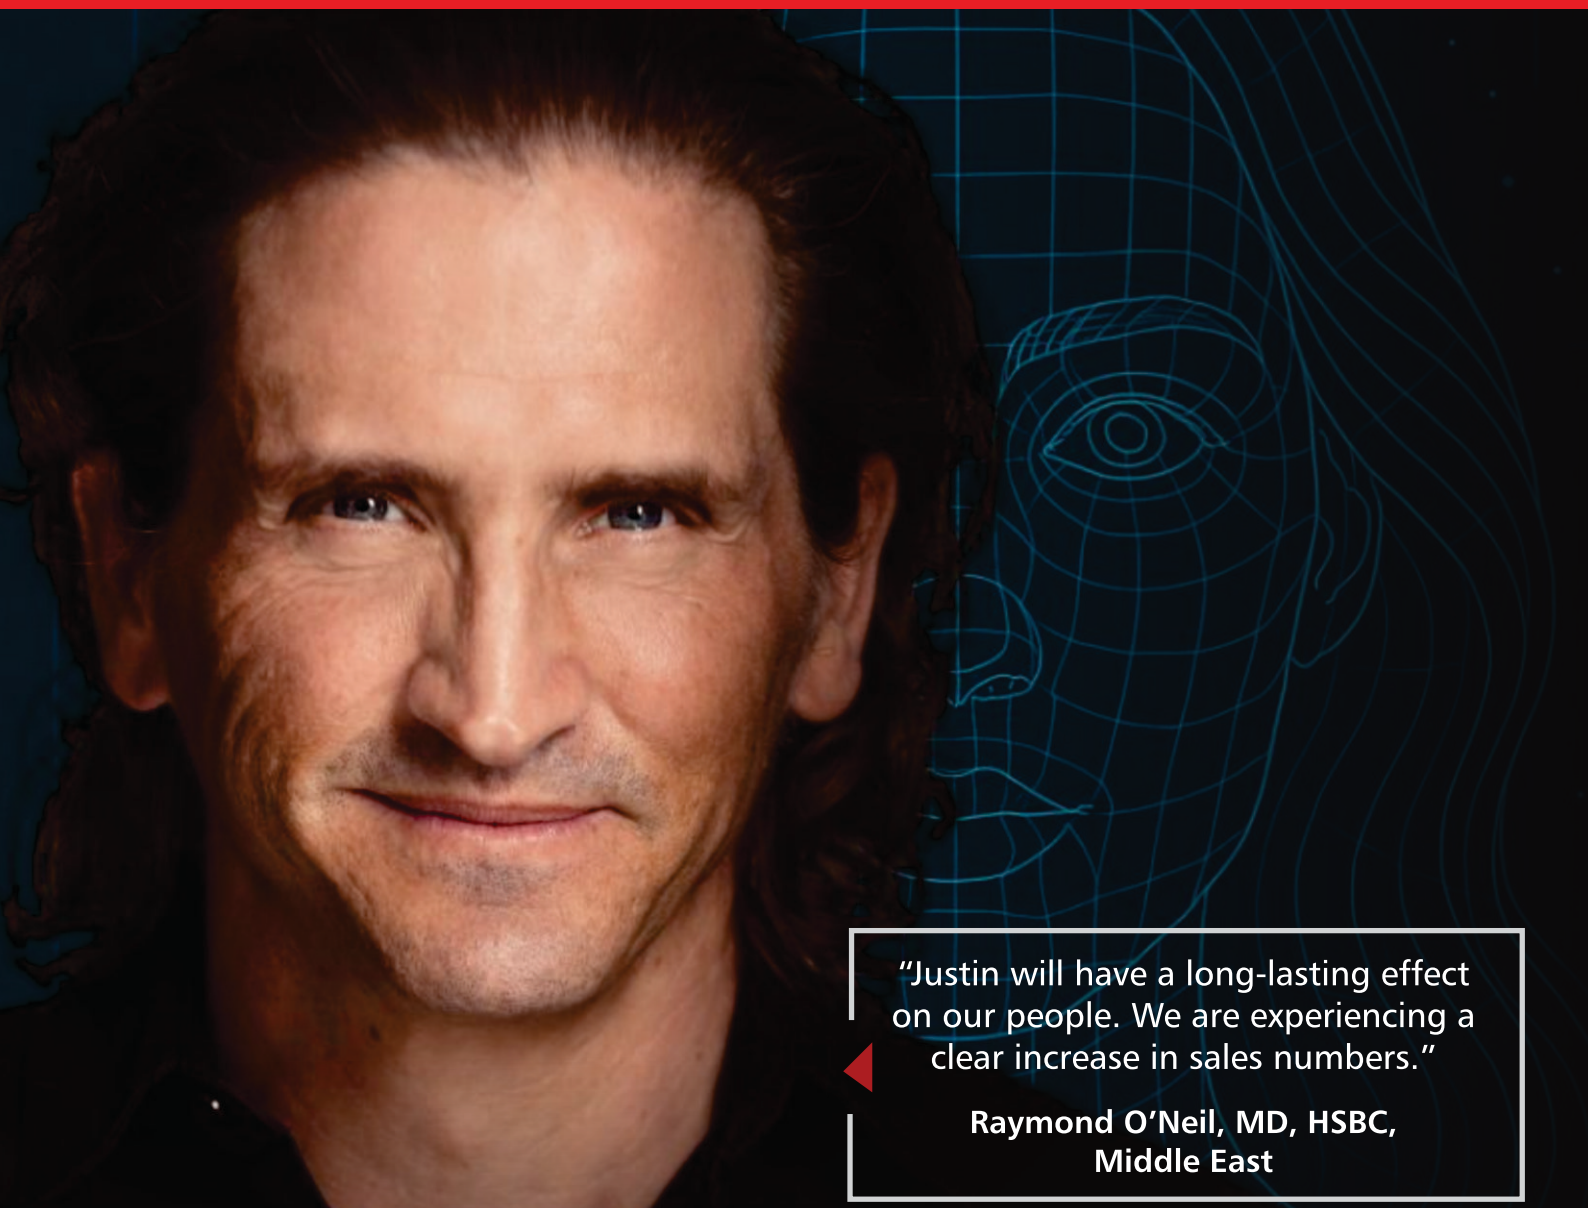

"Deeply Customized. Always going above and beyond. That's why we keep having him back."

Pamela Spence, Global Leader, EY

"You wowed 4000 people and that's why we booked you again."

President HRD Corp, Malaysia

> "Justin will have a long-lasting effect on our people. We are experiencing a clear increase in sales numbers."
>
> Raymond O'Neil, MD, HSBC, Middle East

Whether addressing a 4,000-person convention or an intimate executive retreat, Dr. J brings the same presence, power, and connection, creating lasting transformation.

He doesn't just deliver talks — he delivers your talk, shaping every keynote around your culture, challenges, and objectives. That's why clients don't just book him, they book him again and again.

Over the past two decades, he has delivered thousands of keynotes and workshops across more than 40 countries, earning the trust of global leaders like Google, Microsoft, HSBC, and De Beers.

> "One of the most informative, entertaining and inspiring speakers I've seen."
